

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - MBWG debuts Granolaboo™ at Venice art show
June 26, 2008 Venice, CA

Granolaboo™, a healthy and natural granola, was consumed by a multitude of Los Angeles hipsters at "We Hear It All", resident genius Kyle Ng's art opening (flux.net/flux-presents-kyle-ng-we-hear-it-all-venice) at Flux Studio (<http://flux.net>). The uniqueness of Ng's art inspired a decision to offer something more original than the standard wine and cheese fare served at most art openings. Granolaboo™, which uses all-natural and organic ingredients in its specialty line of granola, incorporated the same type of honey that was featured in one of the art pieces into its recipe.

Granolaboo™, a granola cereal made with all-natural and organic ingredients, is the creation of nutrition and wellness expert Mary Barbour, MA, RD and owner of mindbody wellness group (www.mbwellnessgroup.com).
